ATE HIS SISTER-IN-LAW.

Details are given in Yakutsk newspapers of a revolting case of cannibalism among the nomadic tribe of Lemuts, living on the river Kerkodin, in the extreme northwest of Siberia. One of the nomads, driven desperate by hunger, devoured the bodies of his brother's wife and four children. A party of hunters came upon the deserted encampment and found the remains of the bodies and reported the case. There was no vestige of food on the premises. The brother's body was not found, and it is not known whether he was eaten or wandered away and perished in the snow. The nomad tribes of this region pass a precarious existence, and similar instances of hardships and cannibalism are often brought to light when the melting of the Siberian snows make travel possible.

SINCLAIR'S CHARGES.

Every statement in "The Money Changers" I stand for. The publishers of my book have affidavits to substantiate every charge made against the kings of finance," said Upton Sinclair yesterday in discussing his latest work which accuses leading Wall street men of being monsters of greed and immorality. The author is at his summer camp, Kewasdin, near Lake Placid, N. Y., and although loath to discuss the furore made by advance publication of the contents of his book indicates that he expects a campaign against him as the result of its publication. His accusations that a recent panic was caused solely by a big financier that he might be able to force a woman to his will and wholesale accusations of immorality against Wall street he said are to be met with affidavits.

OLD SOLDIER GIVES UP.

A tall, lean and well-mannered man, 65 years old, walked into the Adams street police station at New York yesterday and asked for help. He said that he was completely down and out and that he did not think he could stand another night in the streets of New York. He said he was Francis D. Walker and that he was a major in the Confederate army and had served all through the war until the eventful day at Appomattox.

Major Walker said that he entered the service of the Confederacy as a private in the Hampton Legion and was present at the taking of Fort Sumter. He had continued as a soldier, fighting for the losing cause to the very end and when the muster-out came he held the rank of major.

"I was 18 when the war broke out," he said, "and had no profession, of course. Then, when I got through, I served in many capacities as a clerk, but mainly in the insurance business. But I probably did not behave myself and my friends fell away from me. None of my family is left and there is nothing for me to do but to wind up my days in some hospital."

The police will investigate the old man's story. After he had received medical attention he was taken to the island.

Chronic Diarrhoea Relieved.

Mr. Edward E. Henry, with the United States Express Co., Chicago, writes, "Our General Superintendent, Mr. Quick, handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy some time ago to check an attack of the old chronic diarrhoea. I have used it since that time and cured many on our trains who have been sick. I am an old soldier who served with Butherford B. Hayes and William McKinley four years in the 23rd Ohio Regiment, and have no aliment except chronic diarrhoea, which this remedy stops at once.". For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

DRUNK TWENTY-TWO YEARS.

Mrs. Hortense Cortial, who is seeking a divorce after 22 years of married life, yesterday made the startling assertion on the witness stand that Lewis F. Cortial, the husband, has been drunk every minute during all that time. She charges him with cruelty, alleging that when she tried to sober him up with a bath he slammed her through a window, cutting the back of her neck. She declares he has insistently called her a cow. Cortial, who is contesting the suit, denies that he ever was cruel to his wife, and says the whole thing is a big mistake. Mrs. Cortial set everybody in the courtroom, including the judge, laughing when she testified that Cortial was subject to "delirious tremors."

LITTLE BURDEN OF SIN.

At the close of religious exercises in the United Mission of St. Louis Tuesday night, while John Hutcherson, of East St. Louis, Ill., was pleading with an audience to come forward to the mourners' bench and seek forgiveness for their sin, a girl about twenty years of age went forward, laid her month-old baby on the altar, denounced the exhorter, and fled. "Here is your little burden of sin," she said to the man who had invited the repentant to come forward.

A Faithful Friend.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he know its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 27, 1908.

THE tide has set the other way and now the Alexandrians who spent the summer or part thereof at the seashore, the mountain resorts, the river landings, country boarding houses, or elsewhere, are returning to their homes, some sadder, some wiser, some better, some worse, but all with pocketbooks as flat as pancakes, so if any of them have creditors, the latter had best wait for a "recoup" before presenting their bills. All the pleasure seekers have had summer experiences; some had a gay time, with others it was perfectly awful, while others went for their health and still others because it is the fashion, but with few exceptions all are glad to get back, and on the quiet admit that they would have been more comfortable at home in their airy homes than cooped up in a ten by twelve room in a strange house. Still they have been, away and in all probability will do the same thing next year, but now being at home they will again take up the thread of life and try to worry along till summer comes again.

A DISPATCH to the Chicago Tribune from Springfield, Ill., says:

Employers of negro labor in Springfield are being threatened by a flood of anonymous letters, which has been growing in volume daily since the race riots.

The people of the north, at heart, are less tolerant of the colored race than are the people of the south, who understand and make allowance for the negroe's weakness, and it is safe to say that every colored man or woman in the south who wants to work can find employment and that no white man in this section would threaten another for employing colored labor.

CONGRESSMAN SLEMP and republican National Committeeman Alvah H. Martin, of Virginia, conferred with Judge Taft yesterday about securing republican speakers to stump the state of Virginia. They left last night for New York to further pursue the matter with General Dupont, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the republican national committee and to see what money would be sent to Virginia. Heretofore the money sent by the republican committee to carry Virginia has been put "where it will do the most good" and this arrangement will probably continue.

SINCE the new Baltimore charter went into effect nine years ago the expenditures of the city government have grown from $7,379,819.80 to $18,765,002.18 a year, and, from present indications, will reach $20,000,000 next year. The rapid increase in city expenses throughout this country is a cause of alarm among the tax payers and of study by municipal experts and students of political economy, but no sure remedy has yet been found. Government by commissioners is being tried in several cities and in some instances with good results.

THE Aldrich-Vreeland emergency currency law at which Congress and President Roosevelt worked so laboriously last year and which cost so much cracking of the republican party whip to secure its passage bids fair, in one respect at least, to be practically a dead letter. Attorney General Bonaparte has given an opinion that under the bill a bank having joined a currency association cannot withdraw except by unanimous consent. There is very little likelihood now of the formation of such associations.

A STRIKE of horseowners held up the races at the Saratoga county, N. Y., fair yesterday afternoon, in revenge for the presence on the grounds of the man who has done so much to kill the race tracks, Governor Hughes. The governor addressed a gathering on the grounds and got an attentive hearing but the horseowners stood firm and refused to put the horses on the track till his departure.

JUDGE TAFT at Hot Springs yesterday said that the federal guarantee of national bank deposits, advocated by Mr. Bryan, would put a premium on reckless banking. This may or may not be true, but certain it is a federal guarantee would have an assuring effect upon depositors.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Aug. 27.

The decision rendered by Judge Thompson on Monday in the injunction proceedings instituted at Cincinnati by the Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association, the text of which was received at the Treasury Department yesterday is regarded as a great victory by the government officials in Washington which participated in preparing the new regulations concerning and branding of distilled spirits. The results of this litigation, if the departments finally be sustained, will work an extraordinary change in the methods pursued by rectifiers in making packages of distilled spirits placed upon the market. Under the old regulations a rectifier was permitted to designate the name of the spirits blended and sold by him, in some cases "rye whisky," in others "bourbon whisky," and so on, to suit the trade. Hereafter all blended whisky must be designated "imitation whisky," which is the name most seriously objected to by the liquor dealers.

The kites at Mount Weather Tuesday past into a dense layer of cloud and fog which enveloped the mountain, and probably extended more than 6,000 feet above it. The temperature at the upper level was nearly the same as at the surface. The winds were northwest at the surface, shifting to northeast aloft, such as would be required with a storm center off the middle Atlantic coast. The rains continued in the Atlantic States, but are now practically over in the southern districts.

After a flying visit to Washington Chairman Mack of the democratic national committee returned to New York carrying the definite assurance that President Gompers and his associate officials of the American Federation of Labor would get out on the stump and hustle for the election of Bryan and Kern. Various labor campaign bureaus will be established in several of the larger cities and conducted under the general direction of the national committee of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Gompers said: "I shall go on the stump as often as I can get away from my work at headquarters.

Acting upon recommendation of the Civil Service Commission Acting Secretary of Treasury Wintrop today discharged from the government service Enoch Hammons for alleged pernicious political activity. Hammons was a storekeeper and gauger in the Eighth district of Kentucky. His offense is said to have occurred last fall.

Exactly 63 hours after their arrest for attempting to assault Miss Maud Tawzer, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Tawzer, of York, Pa., two of the three Yorkers charged with the offense were tried and sentenced to the Eastern penitentiary, while the other was held for the Juvenile Court.

A farmer named Turner, living about ten miles from Jacksonville, Fla., was shot and killed Tuesday night by his son. It is alleged that the men had quarreled because the younger Turner was in love with his stepmother, a young girl whom his father had married a short time ago. The son was arrested.

A report comes from Alberta, Canada, that the largest buffalo herd in the world, which is corralled near the town of Lamont, has wintered well. From the time the roundup of the herd commenced in Montana last year less than 1½ per cent have been lost or died. According to Fur News, arrangements are being made to bring up another 300.

Meredith P. Henderson, an employe of the Washington Iron Works Company, fell from the fire escape of the Fred A. Schmidt building, on Ninth street, yesterday, and died at the Emergency Hospital 40 minutes later. Nearly every bone in his body was broken and his skull was fractured.

Yesterday was the coldest August day on record in New York city. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon the thermometer stood at 51. Added to the cold, rain fell nearly all the night before and yesterday, flooding the streets and cellars. The unique combination of straw hats and heavy topcoats under rain-soaked umbrellas was to be seen everywhere.

John J. Greenough, inventor scientist, lawyer, student of medicine, philospher, author of a book on the origin of superstitution, and a man credited with having made $100,000,000 for other people, died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William L. Chase, near Brookline, Boston, in his ninety-seventh year.

Miss Charlotte Forster, of San Diego, Cal., daughter of a toothpick manufacturer of Portland, Me., plunged from the third floor of the Angeles Hotel to the roof of the lobby Tuesday during a fit of temporary insanity and fractured her skull. Her recovery is doubtful. She is 36 years old and has been an invalid for over a year.

John Lynch, a New York sewer department employe, had one of his feet caught in a cellar pipe while working in a sewer yesterday and was drowned. Two companions who had gone with Lynch into the narrow manhole to open choked pipes, stood on the iron ladder leading into the sewer and saw the man engulfed by the waters, despite their frantic efforts to drag him out.

Mrs. Mary Mays, wife of Mr. Edward M. Mays, of Baltimore, took her life yesterday by shooting herself in the head with a revolver while visiting the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Mays, of Hereford, Baltimore county. Mrs. Mays had been in bad health for some time, and it is supposed she shot herself in a fit of despondency.

George Washington Coleman, aged 27 years, a miner employed by the Consolidated Coal Company in Klondike Mine, No. 7, was found with a bullet hole through his heart in the rear of the residence of his mother at Charlestown, Md., a suburb of Lonaconing, shortly before 10 o'clock last night. He was married on Thursday last. No motive can be ascertained.

In Winchester last night Miss Christine Simpson, a beautiful young woman of New Orleans, became the bride of Ashton Hayward, a prominent business man of the same city. Miss Simpson had been spending the summer at Capon Springs and recently Mr. Haywood appeared at the same resort. The couple drove to Winchester yesterday evening and were married by Rev. Dr. Grammer, of the Episcopal Church.

Smith Musgrove, aged six years, walked to the bureau drawer in his parents' home, at Wick, W. Va., yesterday and removed his father's revolver, which he pointed at his brother, Carl, aged three years. The weapon was discharged, the bullet passing through the child's heart, killing him instantly. The lad almost went into convulsions when he saw the blood spurting from his little brother's breast.

Formal announcement was made at the Department of Justice late yesterday afternoon of the appointment of Wade H. Ellis, present Attorney-General of Ohio, assistant to Attorney-General Bonaparte in place of Milton D. Purdy, who has been appointed a judge of the Federal Court of Minnesota. Mr. Purdy was one of the principal "trust busters" of the administration. Mr. Ellis, is slated to succeed Mr. Bonaparte if Mr. Taft is elected president.

The monthly statement of the collections of internal revenue shows that the total for July, 1908, was $22,029,316, which is a falling off of $2,899,508, as compared with July, 1907. By far the largest part of this decrease is in collections from spirits. The most noteworthy decrease is the receipts from the retail liquor dealers' special tax, which amounts to $216,149. This indicates that 8,646 retail liquor dealers went out of business during July, which is said to be largely due to prohibition legislation.

"God instructed me to beat up and kill a man. He was the hardest man I ever killed. I once had a fight with ten men and killed nine of them." With this amazing statement, Michael Shipley, an insane patient at the Bay View Asylum, near Baltimore, admitted that he had fallen upon his roommate, Franz Gross, 72 years old, also insane, last Saturday at midnight, and with his bare fists had injured Gross so severely that he never gained consciousness, expiring at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

What was announced as the first official statement of contributions in the present national campaign was made yesterday by Treasurer Haskell, of the democratic national committee. The statement deals with funds turned in by five daily newspapers and The Commoner, their contributions reaching a total of $19,438. In connection with the statement, Moses C. Wetmore, of the finance committee, said that other papers which had set marks as high as $3,000 for their offerings would be heard from later when their goal is attained.

Though he is perfectly willing to remain in the asylum until his health has improved, Rev. George S. Fitzhugh, the 67-year-old minister who attempted to wed 10-year-old Virginia Frazier near Baltimore, last week, says that he has not given up his idea of wedding the child, and that he will do so, though he has to wait three or four years. Such was the ultimatum that the minister handed to his youngest son, Mr. Lee Fitzhugh, when the latter visited his aged father at Spring Grove yesterday. The minister has improved greatly since his removal to the institution, both mentally and physically.

Autumn rains have poured wetness and gloom into Richmond for two days. Occasionally there have been drenching showers which have driven the people off the street. It is genuinely cool, so much that many people are out in winter coats and wraps.

F. J. Falkenback, chemist for the Goshen Iron Company, at Goshen was drowned yesterday afternoon while rowing with E. E. Fenton, treasurer of the same company. They were all out for pleasure, and while going through Goshen Pass the boat struck a bowlder and Falkenback was thrown out.

Wesley Adams, a colored boy, about 18 years of age, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon by Norfolk county Police Officer Hodges. The shooting occurred in High street, Norfolk. Mrs. S. Silverman, wife of a clothing merchant, had a narrow escape from drowning in an abandoned well on the premises of the Silverman house in the fashionable section of Roanoke, yesterday. The well had been covered with boards, and grass had grown over the planks. Mrs. Silverman stepped upon the covering and fell 20 feet to the bottom of the well. She stood on tiptoe in water up to her chin and cried for help. A party of men working nearby rushed to her rescue, and with ropes succeeded in getting her out of her perilous predicament.

He held the Cecil Rhodes scholarship in the university. Young Mr. Tucker, following his ordination, goes to Bodyton, where he will assume the rectorship of the Episcopal Church, his first work as a minister.

The terrific rain storms of the past several days have caused heavy damage to all growing crops in the Danville section. Tobacco in the low grounds was nearly drowned, while that growing in other parts was bruised and beaten by the downpour. Late corn and melon crops also suffered. Washouts have badly crippled traffic over the Southern Railway, especially on the Richmond and Norfolk divisions. Trains over the latter division were being run via Greensboro and Selma. A report received last night says that a large iron bridge over the Dan river near Milton had been washed away. The Dan river is ten feet above its normal height, the flood putting out of commission all machinery of the River Side Cotton Mills, by water power.

Geo. J. Hunter, jr., 21-years-old machinist, employed at the navy yard and living at 4315 Brightwood northwest, attempted suicide last night by shooting himself in the head on the street, near Thirteenth and H streets northeast, Washington. The bullet entered the right temple and his injuries were attended by Dr. Moffit at the Casualty Hospital. A number of both 22 and 32 caliber bullets were found in his pockets.

"I want to die," he declared at the hospital, "and am sorry I made a bad job of it."

Declaring to Miss Bessie Kendig, daughter of Samuel B. Kendig, police court bailiff, on whom he had been calling, that he was tired of life, Hunter, jumping to his feet, hastened from the Kendig home, and, when a few yards away, fired a bullet into his right temple.

New York Stock Market.

Letter to Virginia Glass Co.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sirs: We've got $35 for you. Is it time to paint that house? Let us give you a point. The cost of a job of paint depends on the paint—of course, we assume your painter is honest, or, what's the same thing, that your eyes are good.

If you paint with one paint, it'll take 10 gallons—say 10 for ease of reckoning—that proportion.

Paint with another, 15 gallons; another 20 gallons.

Here's a man who has found it out by doing it:

Jacob N Hayes, of Bloomingdale, N Y, used eight gallons Devoe on a job he had used 14 gallons of another paint on last time.

You think he saved 6 gallons of paint, $10.50. No, he saved also the wages for painting 6 gallons; that's about $30 more. And that isn't all. The paint that saves six gallons wears longer than paint that wastes six gallons. We don't know how much longer.

We rather think this letter is worth about $60 to you.

Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & CO.

Today's Telegraphic News

Floods in the South.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 27.—With practically the entire city under water, business houses, mills and factories closed, telephone and telegraph communication with the exception of one wire destroyed, daily newspapers suspended, electric light and power plants put out of commission and with row boats the only means of transportation in the main streets, Augusta is experiencing today the worst flood in its history. Last night two telegraph operators swam to the Chamber of Commerce building, and cut in on a wire that had not been carried down by the torrent, and this is now the only means of sending news to the outside world. To add to the distress thousands of people are today going hungry. Nearly all of the food supplies in the city have been ruined or damaged by the flooding of stores and dwellings and the suspension of traffic makes it impossible to bring food stuffs into the city. Nearly the entire population is subsisting on half rations. The death of two women was reported today. Their buggy was overturned in the rush of waters and they were drowned. Water reached a depth of ten feet in Main street and has ensided but little. The big bridge across the Savannah river has collapsed. Early estimates of damage are far too small and it is certain now that the property loss will run into the millions, far exceeding that of the flood of twenty years ago.

The city was in total darkness last night, the flood having extinguished the fires under the boilers of the electric light plant. The street cars have not been running since early yesterday from the same cause. Three deaths have been reported, two white persons and one negro, names unknown. Word comes from Camden, S. C., that there were but five deaths from the collapse of the toll bridge where yesterday it was reported that 19 were drowned.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 27.—A partial resumption of telegraphic service today with the flood devasted sections of Georgia and the Carolinas brings additional news of heavy property loss and narrow escapes from death, chief of which was the close call of 250 passengers on the north-bound Seaboard train from Florida. Only the precaution of the engineer prevented the train from being plunged into the raging Congaree. Fearful that the bridge had been weakened the engineer was sending his train at a creeping pace over the bridge, when a span gave way under the express car, with the engine and baggage car over midstream. The engineer stopped his train. Reports from the western part of the State today indicate a loss of $1,000,000.

Every river in the state is on a rampage and millions of acres are inundated. Railroad traffic is suspended on the main lines of the Southern between Charlottee and Atlanta by the loss of a number of important bridges. The Seaboard between Hamlet and Atlanta is out of commission, as is the Southern between Greenville and Columbia, and the C. & W. C. between Lurens and Greenville and Laurens and Augusta, and the Central Northern between Columbia and Laurens. The upper third of the state is cut off from Columbia by rail, phone and telegraph.

Atlantic City.

Sesgirt, N. J., Aug. 27.—Martial law for Atlantic City is threatened today by Governor Fort in a startling public proclamation issued here. The governor declares that unless the excise law is observed in the big resort which he terms a "saturnalia of vice" and all the saloons and cafes kept closed next Sunday he will call an extraordinary session of the legislature and may send New Jersey state troops to force compliance with the law.

Governor Fort in his pronouncement today denounces the action of the Mays Landing grand jury, which ten days ago refused to indict the Atlantic City saloon men, as a fiasco. He declares that the grand jury now in session is unlikely to find indictments and declares he has affidavits from two men who last Sunday purchased liquors in Atlantic City saloons which are owned by grand jurors.

In this state of affairs, Governor Fort says, only two expediencies remain. One is to call out the militia and declare the resort under martial law. The other is to ask a special session of the legislature to authorize him to appoint a disinterested commission to govern Atlantic City and also authorizing him to remove, after hearing, all officers who prove recreant to their sworn duty to enforce the law.

Mays Landing, N. J. Aug. 27—The Atlantic county grand jury continued their investigations into Atlantic City's gambling and drinking propensities today. The jurymen began the day with consideration of the gambling cases at Atlantic City, evidence of which was presented by Prosecutor Goldenberg. The liquor cases will be taken up later this afternoon.

Scientific Murders.

Valarion, Spain, Aug. 27.—In the arrest today of Mayor Tortosa, a celebrated physician, the police believe they have found the perpetrator of more than a half dozen "scientific murders" that have baffled them for months. The crime which led to Tortosa's arrest was the murder of his mother-in-law's brother, who Tortosa is accused of inviting to his house to spend the night. The relative was placed in an unventilated room and during the night he was asphyxiated by fumes from a small charcoal burner which, the police say, Tortosa manipulated. Tortosa sought to inherit the wealth of his kinsman. In this same death chamber Tortosa is accused of putting six patients to death, robbery being the motive in every case. After a recent quarrel with his landlord Tortosa invited him to a reconciliation dinner, during which he is charged with piercing the landlord's brain with a pin, causing instant death. The bodies of all the victims were scientifically dissected and burned. The police expect a confession from Tortosa.

Excitement at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill, Aug. 27.—The excitement which seized Springfield last night, following the sensational suicide of Mrs. Kate Howard, leader of the mob in the recent rioting here, after she had been indicted on the charge of murder of Scott Burton, has abated today. The authorities are keeping a lookout, lest the suicide, combined with the fact that the last of the State troops have been withdrawn, may cause further trouble. Mrs. Howard suddenly fell dead at the entrance to the jail when they were about to lock her up. She was arrested following the destruction of a restaurant, was released on bail but arrested again yesterday charged with the murder of Burton.

On the way to jail, she discussed her case calmly and made arrangements to seek her release on bail.

The first indication the officers had that she had taken poison came when she fell senseless at the entrance to the jail and soon died.

Mr. Bryan.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 27.—William J. Bryan received what he considers the best news of the campaign when he arrived here today and familiarized himself with the statement given out last night by his opponent, Mr. Taft, in which the latter reiterates that the guaranteeing of bank deposits is impracticable and dangerous.

This is the most vital issue in the west. The bank guarantee is declared by the democrats to have worked well in Oklahoma and Kansas desires. The republican platform demands it. So with the republican candidate for the presidency disagreeing with the organization in Kansas and representatives from Idaho, Nevada, Colorado, Nebraska and especially Iowa, reaching Bryan in every mail that the sentiment in favor of this plan is growing like wild fire, he is more than ever confident of being elected.

Death of Mr. Villas.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 27.—Col. Wm. F. Villas, former United States Senator and member of the late President Cleveland's cabinet, died here today after a five week's illness, starting from hemorrhage of the brain.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Ferdinad Earle, artist and alleged wife beater was released from jail at Goshen today on a bond of $1,000.

The American fleet left Sydney, New South Wales, this morning and expects to reach Melbourne, about noon on Saturday.

Ex-Chief of Police Edgar A. Hallet of Wakefield, who took part in the capture of Giteau, the assassin of President Garfield, died today at his home, Wakefield, Mass.

There was a light fall of snow in the suburbs of Baltimore last night. Flurries are reported from other parts of Maryland.

Burglars looted the big silk house of Katz and Quint in east Twentieth street, New York, last night taking 200 sample dresses and merchandise valued at from $10,000 to $15,000.

President Roosevelt and his party who yesterday aided in the dedication of the new library at Jordansville, N. Y., arrived in New York today and boarded the yacht Sylph which at once started for Oyster Bay.

Arrangements have been completed for the importation of about 10,000 Mexican cotton pickers of Texas and Oklahoma. About 3,000 Mexicans are now picking cotton in Texas, rapidly supplanting the negroes.

Fearful that the dissolution of the Finnish Diet will precipitate a revolt of the Finns, the czar is delaying his dissolution edict until sufficient troops can be rushed into Finland to suppress the expected outbreak.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft are to be "surprised" with a loving cup by the guests of the Homestead Hotel in Hot Springs, Va., this evening. The cup is to be given them as a sort of farewell token by the men and women among whom they have lived during the last month.

Within 50 feet of the spot where Samuel Bigelow a New York actor, was found robbed and beaten into unconsciousness in Chicago, yesterday William Chambers, 28 years old, was found early this morning with nine knife wounds in his body. Chambers will die.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed today in the United States District Court in New York against A. C. Brown & Co., by Nouse, Grossman and Verbaas, attorneys for Frank V. Strauss, with a claim of $26,210, Leon Raven with a claim of $500 and F. V. Strauss & Co., with a claim of $400.

The bitter three cornered fight between Congressman George L. Lilley, Governor Woodruff and Lieutenant Governor Lake for the republican nomination for governor of Connecticut practically came to an end today, when it became known that Mr. Lilley had secured a majority of the delegates elected for the convention.

"Standard Oil and the Morgan interests marked the firm in New York of A. C. Brown & Co., for slaughter" said a well-known operator on the Stock Exchange today, "because they feared the passage of an anti-gambling law which would practically kill all their big plunges on the market."

Safe blowers early today dynamited the safe of the Federal Supply Company at large near Pittsburg, Pa. The blast shook the entire village. A posse of citizens armed with shot guns, and revolvers started to hunt the safe crackers but have been unable to get any trace of them. It is believed the robbers escaped with $1,000.

Five of the leading bankers of New York have decided that Wall street stock gambling must be checked. Today a third of a series of secret meetings was held by these bankers and it was agreed that unless the stock exchange takes drastic measures immediately the lesson given to A. C. Brown & Co., by the bankers who admit responsibility for the suspension will be repeated.

The French Cable Company has been found guilty in the Matos Revolution by the civil court of first instance in Caracas and sentenced to pay a fine of nearly $5,000,000. The decision is practically the same as that made in the Bermudez Asphalt Company's case, the amount being similar. The Cable Company will likely appeal from the decision.

Reports that 42 negro families, frightened away from Springfield during the recent rioting, were planning to move into Gage Park, Chicago, caused residents to purchase shot guns and then declared they would use them should the invasion of the negroes begin. Residents of other surburbs in the vicinity of Gage Park where negroes now reside, declared today they were organizing to drive the negroes from their midst.

In Bordentown, N. J., today, Joseph Hooker walked up to Edward Ford, his neighbor, near the city hall and, accusing him of being a home breaker, emptied four bullets into Ford's body. Ford will die. It is said that the families of the two men have been at odds for two years.

Not satisfied with banishing his younger brother, Archduke Louis Victor, from court for alleged immorality, Emperor Francis Josef took the former's magnificent palace on the Schwarzburg Platz away from him and gave it to Mme. Catherine Schratt, the actress, to whom the emperor has been devoted, for years. The palace is the finest in Vienna.

The democrats of the Eighteenth congressional district, which Speaker Cannon represents in the House, propose to make a real fight this fall to defeat him. Henry C. Bell, of Marshall, Ill., will make the race against the speaker.

Hundreds of homeless men and women, the greatest number in months, today are hiding from the cold rain in the police stations in New York and city shelters and nearly a hundred left the morgue this morning after a night spent in sleeping by the marble slabs. Never before in the history of the Municipal Lodging House have so many applications for shelter been received during August.

THE FLOODS.

Four days of heavy rains in the south have culminated in disastrous flood conditions extending over North and South Carolina and eastern Georgia.

The storm center appears to have been at Augusta, Ga., where three deaths are reported, and where large cotton warehouses are reported burning. The streets of Augusta being flooded from six to ten feet deep, efforts of the firemen to reach the scene of the fire were much impeded.

Since 8 o'clock Wednesday evening all communication with Augusta, which had been sustained by a single railroad wire, has been cut off, and since that hour no information has come from the city that is threatened by fire and water.

The Savannah river at Augusta had reached a stage of 40, or 8 feet above flood stage, at midnight Wednesday.

At 2:30 yesterday afternoon the big dam at the head of the canal above Augusta gave way from the strain of the flood and an enormous volume of water rolled upon the already inundated city.

Floods in the Catawba river, in North Carolina, and the Wateree and Peedee rivers, in South Carolina, have caused enormous damage. The Oconee and Ocmulgee rivers, in Georgia, also are in flood, and though details are lacking from that region, the drainage must be great.

Railway lines throughout the flooded districts are practically paralyzed, through washouts and the sweeping away of bridges. Telegraph and telephone communication is badly crippled, and in the case of Augusta, entirely cut off.

In area covered and in extent of damage, the flood is likely to prove one of the most serious the south has ever known.

The rainfall was particularly heavy in the vicinity of Raleigh, N. C., where the total fall since Sunday was 10 inches. The losses and damage are enormous.

Railroads have annulled trains, bridges have been washed away, roads rendered impassable, and large areas of crops destroyed.

As a result of the severe rain storm and floods in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, the through service of the Southern Railway will be crippled for several days. The worst condition exists at Greenville, S. C. At Williamston, S. C., a bridge 130 feet long has been washed away and cannot be repaired until the water subsides. It will probably take several days to repair this break. Bridges and trestles have been washed out along the line, and the railroad official are facing the worst conditions experienced in years.

Danville and vicinity suffered heavily from the rainstorms of the past several days. Dan river was yesterday 10 feet above its normal height, the highest known in years. All of the machinery operated by water power in the large factories of the Riverside Cotton Mills, located on the banks of the river, was put out of commission by the high water.

All trains over the Southern Railway were delayed many hours, many of them indefinitely. The heaviest damage on the Southern was done on the Richmond and the Norfolk divisions. On account of serious washouts, the Norfolk trains are being run around by way of Greensboro and Selma.

Flood conditions prevail throughout Virginia as the result of the heavy rains of the last 48 hours. Two washouts have been reported on the Norfolk and Western main line, near Bedford City. A hundred feet of track has been washed away on the Durham division of the Norfolk and Western at South Boston.

In Richmond, the water is already over the wharves and old rivermen anticipate higher water before morning. The stretch of river has been cleared of everything that can get along with its own power.

The heavy rains have done much damage throughout the State. Crops on bottom lands have been greatly injured, and tobacco on high lands and ready to cut has been damaged. Serious washouts along public highways are reported, and numbers of bridges have been carried away by the floods. Appomatox river was last night higher than it has been for years. Few crops along its banks have been spared. Two mules and four head of cattle were drowned yesterday in a pasture near Farmville.

Immense damage has been done in tidewater. Corn and tobacco crops on creek and river bottoms are submerged and practically ruined. The damage in Halifax county will approximate a quarter of a million dollars. A number of washouts on the Southern Railway have stopped all trains on that line. At Mayo creek the railway tracks are 6 and 7 feet under water. Creeks are higher than they have been for 40 years. A whisky warehouse was washed away Tuesday night by a mere branch swollen into a river. Hoco and Dan rivers will not reach their highest until this afternoon. The damage done by them can hardly be estimated.

A terrific northeast storm that broke along the New Jersey coast yesterday drove up one of the biggest tides known at Atlantic City for years and endangered the big fleet of yachts lying at the inlet. They scudded for harbor just in time to escape serious damage.

TRIP TO ALEXANDRIA.

Wright's aeroplane will make a flight either Saturday or Monday, according to the present plans of the inventor. The mechanics were engaged yesterday in installing the high motor power in the frame work which has just been completed. Mr. Wright expects the first official flight will be made over the Alexandria course. He says the machine should fly to Alexandria and back in a few minutes. As to how many minutes it will take to make the trip he is unable to say, but the ten-mile course he thinks will be covered in such a time as to give an average of more than forty miles an hour. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, Capt. Baldwin did not order the dirigible taken from the wall tent yesterday. Lieuts. Foulois, Lahm, and Selfridge, however, went out to Fort Myer for another trial spin, but Capt. Baldwin said he would not sail the dirigible as long as the rain continued. The lieutenants probably will be given another lesson in the art of sailing today between 5 and 7 o'clock. Captain Baldwin expects to leave Washington on Saturday, and hopes the weather will be such as to permit him to give another lesson before his departure.

HIBERNIANS ELECT OFFICERS.

The dual biennial state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and of the Ladies' Auxiliary in Portsmouth was brought to a close last night at that city. Following are the officers elected by the Hibernians: Maurice A. Powers, of Richmond, president; William H. Sweeney, of Alexandria, vice president; John T. Flood, of Portsmouth secretary; and William McDermott, of Roanoke, treasurer. Officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary were elected as follows: Miss Agnew T. Ferriter, of Richmond, president; Mrs. John McDonald, of Roanoke, vice president; Mrs. Annie C. Lyons, of Norfolk, secretary; Mrs. Mary Fennymore, of Newport News, treasurer; Mrs. M. A. Breen, of Alexandria, sergeant-at-arms, and Miss Agnes Quinn, of Roanoke, sentinel. The next convention will be held in Richmond. The Alexandria delegates returned to their homes this morning.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The convention of the republicans of the Eighth congressional, district is called to meet in this city on Monday next. Rumors galore are afloat as to who will be nominated against Hon. C. C. Carlin, the democratic standard bearer. There is no doubt of the fact that unless Mr. Park Agnew refuses to accept the nomination it will fall to him, as the party realizes in him the strongest republican who can be pitted against the democratic nominee. It is said that this will be the largest convention which has been held here in a long time, many men prominent in republican ranks signifying their intention of attending. It is not certain but it would be no surprise to the Alexandria republican to see Congressman Bascom Slemp among the visitors. An active fight is going to be made by the republican party in this district this time, so that they will "look good" to Mr. Taft in the event of his election to the presidency.

DEATH OF MISS EMMA PRICE.

Miss Emma Price, daughter of the late George Price, died at the family residence, the home of Mr. Thodphilus Ballenger, on Cameron street, yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock. Miss Price had been in ill health for almost a year but had only been confined to her bed about three weeks. She was an estimable woman, possesing those virtues which endeared her to the hearts of those who knew her. She was in the 60th year of her age. Miss Price is survived by four sisters—Mrs. E. E. Downham, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. Robert Gronau, of this city, and Mrs. Janie Weeks, of New York, and one brother—Mr. George E. Price, of this city. The funeral will take place on Sunday evening at 3 o'clock and the pallbearers will be Messrs. Francis, Harry, and Robert Downham and Stewart and Frank Smith and Walter Price, all nephews of the deceased.

NOT ON ARARAT.

There is an ark at the mouth of the Dyke where two or three citizens and one police officer went a day or two ago for pleasure. The high winds and rains have caused the water to cover the land, and it is impossible for them to get home. The business men's families are worried about them and the police officer was booked for duty Wednesday night. The first information that they are safe came from a Dove to the police station this morning. Henry Dove fishes a trap net near there and the "arkangels" asked him to communicate with their people.

SCARED BY A BULL.

Amusing to onlookers but not so funny to Mr. Richard Roberts was his escape from a bull in Alexandria county yesterday. He was pursued so closely that he climbed a tree to get out of the reach of the animal which remained at the foot of the big locust tree waiting for Mr. Roberts to come down. He, however, clung for several hours to his perilous perch. It seemed a long time to him as he waited the approach of some one on whom he could call for assistance. His cries for help attracted several neighbors who armed themselves with pitch forks and drove the maddened animal away.

IN SEARCH OF BOY THIEVES.

Some colored boys entered the store kept by Mrs. Alexander, on north Columbus street, yesterday, and robbed the money drawer of all the cash it contained. This is the second or third time it has happened and Mrs. Alexander has reported her loss to the Police Department. Such occurrances are usual of late and the department is kept busy bringing to justice the thieves.

THE GAME LAW.

In order to prevent the killing of birds throughout the State and to prevent hunting out of season, the Virginia Game Protective Association is circulating posters in all the cities and counties calling attention to the bird and game law. It recites that it is unlawful at any time to kill mocking birds, song birds, hammers, bull-bats, buzzards, thrushes, red birds, whippoorwills, woodpeckers, meadow larks and all other non-game birds in this State; also that it is unlawful to hunt with lights by night, or to hunt on Sunday, and that it is unlawful at all times to buy, sell or have for sale any game birds whatsoever, in season or out of season. Game wardens may arrest parties under suspicion without warrants and the penalty is from five to fifty dollars fine.

VIRGINIA FIREMEN MEET.

More than 700 delegates are in Harrisonburg attending the twenty-second annual convention of the Virginia State Firemen's Association. The town is decorated, and notwithstanding the steady downpour of rain, many country people are present. The grand parade comes off today and reel races tomorrow.

Last night Staunton, Roanoke, Covington, and Alexandria were among the contestants for the next meeting place, but it appears that Alexandria will get the next convention. Capt. Marshall, of Portsmouth, a former congressman and a civil war veteran, made the speech for the visiting firemen. The weather is bad, but the crowd large.

GLASS FACTORIES.

Next Tuesday the Old Dominion Glass Company will start one furnace and this will give employment to at least 150 people. As the season advances the other furnaces will be put in operation if the trade in bottles warrants it.

The Belle Pre Glass Works will start its force in motion Tuesday morning and will increase its employees as the occasion demands.

The Alexandria Glass Works will begin business on Tuesday morning with 27 men. This is a growing plant and the proprietors expect to enlarge the factory at an early day.

The Virginia Glass Works will start its furnaces next week, employing its usual quota of men.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Charles A. Yohe, who died Tuesday night, took place at 4 o'clock this evening from his late home, 123 north Washington street, and was largely attended. Rev. Berryman Green, of the Theological Seminary, officiated and the pallbearers were Messrs. Douglass Stuart, H. F. Robertson, William Buckingham, August Oehlert, Henry Wildt and J. Johnston Green. The interment was private.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

R. W. Sherman, arrested by Officer Garvey, for disorderly conduct, was fined $10.

Alice Harris, colored, arrested by Special Officer Mullen and Officer Sampson for disorder and fighting, was fined $5.

PALLBEARERS' UNION.

As a result of an excursion of this colored organization Alice Harris, colored, was arrested at the foot of King street last night by Special Officer Mullen for disorderly conduct. This morning though she tried to convince Justice Caton that "no row nix" he could not see it that way and fined her $5. A few more cases like this will bring order out of chaos when these excursionists land here.

THIEVES AT WORK.

Mr. John D. Normoyle, one of Alexandria's shrewdest real estate agents, always looking to the interests of his clients, has reported to police headquarters that thieves have been at work at the premises No. 212 south Patrick street, and have stolen and destroyed hydrant connections, gas pipe, gas fixtures, etc. The damage to the property amounts to about $100.

THE WEATHER.

The weather continues cloudy and threatening, with occasional light showers. The temperature keeps low and at 7 o'clock this morning the mercury stood at 57°. By noon it had risen to 64. This has been one of the most unseasonable spells of weather known for a long time.

SPIT OF SNOW.

As was stated yesterday the captain of the Norfolk steamer reported heavy weather on the lower river and in addition to the high winds it was uncomfortably cool. On the trip up the river yesterday the steamer encountered a spit of snow as it was passing Mount Vernon.

Mysterious Shooting.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 27.—Charles B. Roberts, said to be a prominent Baltimore society man, was mysteriously shot on the board walk here last night, while riding in a rolling chair with Mrs. W. C. Williams, also of Baltimore and a social leader in that city. Roberts is seriously hurt. After the shooting a strong attempt was made to keep it quiet. When nearing Rhode Island avenue, a man, darted out from the shadows and sprang to the side of the chair. Without a word the stranger shot his victim and then ran away. An automobile was summoned and Roberts was taken to the city hospital. The police intimate that a secret enemy of Roberts did the shooting.

THURSDAY EVENING, AUG. 27, 1908.

A Dispenser of Smiles.

Her mother said: "Oh, dear! Isn't that awful? What will people think?" but the people themselves seemed to think it about the prettiest incident they had met that day.

She was a very little girl, white frocked, pink ribboned, brown curled. With her mother she left the subway train at the Grand Central station. The usual confusion prevailed. Timid travelers grabbed suit cases and bundles and exclaimed, "Oh, do we change here?" Trainmen on the platform shouted out directions for local and express trains and the guards of that particular car adjured the passengers frequently and vehemently to "Step lively!" and to "Watch the step." Then all of a sudden there was a lull in the uproar. The little girl was leaving the car. She stopped at the door, looked back and waved her hand.

"Goodby, everybody," she said.

The words carried to the far end of the car. They made every one sit up. Two or three persons called out a responsive "Goodby," two or three said "Bless the child," and all smiled.—New York Press.

The Sea Serpent.

When fourteen miles off the coast of Brazil M. J. Nicoll, author of "Three Voyages of a Naturalist," observed a sea serpent which came within about fifty yards of the ship. "All that we could see was a dorsal fin about four feet long sticking up about two feet from the water. The fin was a brownish black color and much resembled a gigantic piece of ribbon seaweed. Below the water we could indirectly see a very large brownish black patch, but could not make out the shape of the creature. Every now and then the fin disappeared below the water. Suddenly an eel-like neck, about six feet long and of the thickness of a man's thigh, having a head shaped like that of a turtle, appeared in front of the fin, lashing up the water with a curious wriggling movement. This creature was an example, I consider, of what has been so often reported, for want of a better name, as the 'great sea serpent.' (I feel sure, however, that it was not a reptile that we saw, but a mammal."

Bought His Own Work.

To come across a bit of one's own work in print is an experience not ordinarily exasperating to an author, but a Washington writer on scientific matters was recently not very agreeably surprised by such a development.

It appears that the writer was collecting material for a monograph on electro magnetism when word came to him of a valuable paper on the subject not long before published in a Berlin journal devoted to science. Thinking that the paper would be of use to him in the work in hand, he had it translated. When the English version was laid before him, together with quite a bill for the translator's labor, what was the disgust of the writer to find that the article was nothing more or less than a German reproduction of an article of his own published the year before in an English journal. And he had paid twice as much for the translation as he had received for the original article!—Washington Star.

A Dream Superstition.

I heard what was to me at least a new piece of superstition the other day, and when I think of the risks I've run all these years because I didn't know of it my blood runs cold. I met a woman from Virginia in market, and the talk falling on dreams I recalled a most blood curdling nightmare I had had the night before.

"I must tell you what I dreamed last night," I said.

"Let me ask first whether it's a pleasant or an unpleasant dream?" said the lady from Virginia.

"Decidedly unpleasant."

"Then for mercy's sake don't tell it!" said she. "Never tell a bad dream on Saturday, for we say in Virginia:

"Friday night's dream on Saturday told
Is sure to come true, no matter how old."

—Washington Post.

Australian Cadets.

All children in Australia are drilled, but the elder boys are attached to the Australian military forces by means of the cadet corps. Almost every large school has its band of cadets, who wear neat khaki uniforms and are armed with light rifles, in the use of which they are frequently instructed. Every year those boys have shooting matches, and the scores prove that among the youngsters there are many who have already become skilled marksmen.—London Standard.

Giving Them Credit.

"You know," said the distinguished oriental who manifests much curiosity, "that the Chinese discovered the art of printing from type thousands of years ago?"

"Yes," replied the man who was being interviewed. "And incidentally I don't doubt that they were the original inventors of the interrogation point."—Washington Star.

Handicapped.

Judge—Remember, witness, you are sworn to tell the truth, and nothing but the truth. Witness—Judge, I am trying my durndest to do it, but that pie faced slob of a lawyer there won't let me!—Chicago Tribune.

Half the Battle.

"If I were you," said the old bachelor to the benedict, "I'd either rule or know why."

"Well," was the reply, "as I already know why, I suppose that's half the battle!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Diarrhoea Cured.

"My father has for years been troubled with diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, without avail," writes John H. Zirkle, of Philippi, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Philippi Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle cured him and he has not suffered with the disease for eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years old, can do as much work as a young man." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Richard Gibson.
